Program Sponsors

Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program brings accomplished professionals from designated countries of Africa, Asia, Latin America, the Caribbean, the Middle East, Europe and Eurasia to the United States at a midpoint in their careers for a year of study and related professional experiences. The Program provides a basis for establishing long-lasting productive partnerships and relationships between citizens of the United States and their professional counterparts in other countries, fostering an exchange of knowledge and mutual understanding through the world.

Hubert H. Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs

strives to increase public understanding of politics through research by conducting studies relevant to Minnesota policy makers and legislators throughout the Upper Midwest and serves as a resource to the media and citizens on important policy issues.

University of Minnesota Human Rights Center

helps train effective human rights professionals as volunteers. The Center assists human rights advocates, monitors, students and educators through research, educational tools, field and training opportunities, the online Human Rights Library and Resource Center, the Human Rights and Peace Store, and community partnerships.

University of Minnesota Law School has earned a national reputation for accomplishments that are uniquely related to its history, its location and its people. The Law School aims to prepare its students to apply their talents and intellectual strengths to the public and private good. The history of public and private cooperation that undergirds the region's progressive community life has attracted to the Law School individuals with the talent and motivation to improve society.

United States Institute of Peace is an independent, nonpartisan federal institution created by Congress to promote the prevention, management, and peaceful resolution of international conflicts. Established in 1984, the Institute meets its congressional mandate through an array of programs, including research grants, fellowships, professional training, education programs from high school through graduate school, conferences and workshops, library services, and publications. The Institute's Board of Directors is appointed by the President of the United States and confirmed by the Senate.
